

Club Song

ARCADIA

Tune; Battle Hymn of the Republic.

1. Arcadia the beautiful
Our watchword and our song
And for THIS we're aiming day and night
A hundred women strong
But with our Garden Section's aid
It surely won't be long
Till Arcadia is on the map.

Chorus

Hail, oh hail, to you Arcadia
Hail, oh hail to you Arcadia
Hail, oh hail, to you Arcadia
We'll put you on ~~the~~ map

2. Our legacy of fine old trees
This is our proudest boast
And our GRAND and famous double drive
Is known from coast to coast
Oh Arcadia the beautiful
We answer to the toast
For Arcadia Woman's Club.

Chorus

Oh we love you dear Arcadia
Yes we love you dear Arcadia
Hail, all hail, to you Arcadia
Queen of the foot hill towns.

(Mrs) Nellie A. White
(Pres)

Written for "The Club" for "Tree Day"
and sung for the first time on that date
March 9th 1927.

Club Song

ARCADIA

Tune; Battle Hymn of the Republic.

1. Arcadia the beautiful
Our watchword and our song
And for THIS we're aiming day and night
A hundred women strong
But with our Garden Section's aid
It surely won't be long
Till Arcadia is on the map.

Chorus

Hail, oh hail, to you Arcadia
Hail, oh hail to you Arcadia
Hail, oh hail, to you Arcadia
We'll put you on ~~the~~ map

2. Our legacy of fine old trees
This is our proudest boast
And our GRAND and famous double drive
Is known from coast to coast
Oh Arcadia the beautiful
We answer to the toast
For Arcadia Woman's Club.

Chorus

Oh we love you dear Arcadia
Yes we love you dear Arcadia
Hail, all hail, to you Arcadia
Queen of the foot hill towns.

(Mrs) Nellie A. White
(Pres)

Written for "The Club" for "Tree Day"
and sung for the first time on that date
March 9th 1927.

Minutes of the regular business meetings of the Woman's Club of
Arcadia from,

October 13, 1926 to Oct. 16, 1929.

Minutes of the regular
business meetings of
the Woman's Club of
Arcadia from,
October 13, 1926 to Oct. 16, 1929.